This is the first office action for application number 10/807,291, Acceleration Clamp Assist, filed on March 24, 2004.

Election/Restriction

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-15, drawn to an arrangement, classified in class 248, subclass 550.
- II. Claims 16-20, drawn to a method of reducing forces applied to an object, classified in class 73, subclass 382R.
- III. Claims 21-30, drawn to an apparatus, classified in class 359, subclass 822.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions II and I are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are an arrangement for positioning an object relative to a surface and a method of reducing forces applied to an object relative to a surface, the method does not need the arrangement in order to accomplish reducing forces to an object, a totally different arrangement can be used.

Inventions III and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because a different arrangement can be used in the apparatus. The subcombination has separate utility such as clamping a picture on a support surface.

Inventions III and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions the method can be used to determine effects of acceleration for a vehicle transport such as a ship or airplane.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Claim 1 is generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising a clamp, Species I - Figs. 1, 2A, 3, 4, 8, 9, 11, and 12; Species II - Figs. 5-7; and Species III Figs. 14-17. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
